

SAVE THE DATE !!!

International Total Survey Error Workshop 2016

October 9- 12, 2016

Hosted by

The Australian Bureau of Statistics at Q Station Sydney Harbour National Park- Manly
in Sydney, Australia

Experience the beauty of Sydney Harbour whilst...

*Getting inspired by the historical site, formerly Australia's first Quarantine Station.

*Being invigorated by the unique Australian bush in Sydney Harbour National Park.

*Feeling refreshed by the tranquil heritage surrounds with contemporary comforts and facilities.

Find out more:

www.youtube.com/watch?v=2xFuYeyDZqs

Proposed themes:

1. Key note by Dr Paul Biemer
2. Inference from non-probability samples.
3. Questionnaire designs to minimise TSE.
4. Collection designs to minimise errors.
5. Adjusting impacts from errors.

For further information, please contact Rachel Barker at rachel.barker@abs.gov.au

On a non-committal basis, please let Rachel know if you would like to participate and the proposed title of your paper for planning purposes.

